

WHY WE ALL WANT THE CROWN'S EIGHTIES INTERIORS NOW

Forget the costumes: our obsession with the royal drama is all about the decor. And if chintzy florals and frilled hems aren't your bag, the Memphis movement is trending too

So how to bring a touch of Memphis to suburbia? To score an original piece, die-hard fans will make a pilgrimage to vintage markets such as Alfies or visit lstdibs.com and @oswalde.shop. Just last month the Instagram account @billy.forsale sold archive Ikea pieces from the late Eighties. Unsurprisingly the fashion crowd are fans — Karl Lagerfeld and David Bowie were hardcore Memphis obsessives — and scoring a one-off object (see Jermaine Gallacher's zigzag candlesticks) only adds to the kudos.
